A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the St. Albans Bank, a corporation, duly incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Vermont, located and doing business at St. Albans, in the county of Franklin, has made application to me, requesting me to issue a proclamation designating some day for the termination of the existence of said corporation; and whereas, it has been made to appear to me that two-thirds of the legal votes of the stockholders of said corporation were given in favor of said application;
Now, therefore, I, the Governor of the State of Vermont, do hereby issue my proclamation, and declare that on the twenty-first day of March, A. D. 1868, the said corporation shall cease to exist as fully and completely as if said stockholders had voted in favor of the termination thereof.
In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the State of Vermont to be hereunto affixed, in Executive Chamber at Waterbury, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1867, and of the independence of the United States the 91st.
